Stan Bright and Susie Geiger were awarded the Volunteer of the Year designation this year. Congratulations.

Along with this Links for Life wishes to thank Janis Varner, past board member, for her continued support during the events of the year.

Paint the Town Pink Month

This year's annual Fashion Show and Luncheon was so much fun. A big thank you to the 33 new members who joined, and to the 66 members who renewed their memberships at the event. Links for Life appreciates your support. I would also like to thank the ones who couldn't come to the Fashion Show and Luncheon but sent a donation to Links for Life. Your thoughtfulness and support is most appreciated.
Billie Reynolds, Membership Chair

Members and friends of our Links for Life Support Groups are participating in the Get Moving Kern walking program to improve their health. They began their virtual walk across America from Bakersfield, CA. To Bangor, Maine in April. After 32 weeks our Links for Life team of 21 walkers have completed 19,086.39 miles. December 1 the team will be recognized for holding down second place in the large team category for the first half of the walking program. We have added 4 walkers and guys lately. By: Stephanie Lynch
