

Dear Breast Cancer Survivors:

Every year the Bakersfield Californian publishes an article in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness, and in celebration of Paint the Town Pink. It is in the October issue of the Bakersfield Life magazine, published the last Saturday of September and included with an article is the Links for Life Wall of Hope featuring breast cancer survivors. We would like YOU to be part of the special edition.

New 2022

If you are new to the Wall of Hope and would like to be included, please email an attachment: a head shot of yourself, a high resolution photo (not downloaded from social media) to the Links for Life office along with the permission form below by August 1st.

Returning

** YOUR PROMPTNESS IS APPRECIATED ****

I give The Bakersfield Californian permission to use my photo for the 2022 Wall of Hope.
